

Join us!

27TH ANNUAL CONFERENCE
November 14-17, 2015

HYATT REGENCY PHOENIX
CONVENTION CENTER
PHOENIX, AZ

NAEHCY's annual conference equips educators, service providers, and advocates with the knowledge, skills and inspiration to remove barriers and ensure students experiencing homelessness are successful. Help shape the future by joining us in Phoenix. Please visit www.naehcy.org for more information or to register.

Issues to be discussed...

- Basics of implementing the McKinney-Vento Act in schools
- Collaborating with Title I, special education and other federal programs
- Connecting community and school resources to help students and families
- Increasing access to early childhood programs
- Helping students transition to and be successful in higher education
- Legislative and policy updates
- Research and the collection and use of data
- Supporting unaccompanied homeless youth
- Housing and homeless services collaborations

Who should attend the conference?

The conference highlights best practices that are relevant to any professional who supports the education of homeless children and youth including:

- School District Liaisons
- State Coordinators of Homeless Education
- School Administrators
- Transportation Staff
- Charter School Directors
- School Social workers, Counselors
- Early Childhood Programs
- Higher Education Professionals
- Homeless Services and Housing

Continuing Education Units

The University of Texas at Austin is offering educational and professional continuing education units to participants at no additional cost. Attendees may apply for credits in Education (CPE), Social Work, Counseling (LPC, CDC), and Therapy (LMFT).

The National Association for the Education of Homeless Children and Youth (NAEHCY) is a national membership association dedicated to educational excellence for children and youth experiencing homelessness. Through state and federal policy and technical assistance to our members, students, and the public, we change systems so all children and youth can learn, succeed academically, and achieve their dreams.

For more information about NAEHCY, or to become a member, visit www.naehcy.org, send an email to info@naehcy.org, or call 763-545-0064.